MUKDEN AND LIAO YANG

To be Attacked Simultaneously—On the Other Hand Kuropatkin Says Situation Is Unchanged—Official Report of Events About Port Arthur.

Liao Yang, Aug. 6.—(Delayed in transmission.)—The Japanese are advancing on Mukden and it is probable that a simultaneous attack will be made on Mukden and Liao Yang, in which case a decisive battle is assured.

A DRAMATIC WEEK

Liao Yang Said to Be in No Immediate Danger.

Liao Yang, Aug. 4.—(Delayed in transmission.)—The past week has been a most dramatic and eventful one. The Japanese intend to follow up the Russians and gain ground east and south by an attack on Anshanshan, midway between Hai Cheng and Liao Yang. It is reported that the Japanese are advancing on the west and exciting rumors are current. Though apparently beaten at every point, and though the Japanese have advanced well on the Russian flank, the Russians have been able to defend all their positions as heretofore. All foreign attaches and newspaper correspondents are running into the lines.

Liao Yang is in no immediate danger though the Russians have been compelled to fall back owing to the superior numbers of the Japanese. A Russian cavalry division was until today in contact with the enemy south of Anshanshan. The Japanese did not capture any rolling stock at Hai Cheng. It is rumored here that the Japanese are changing their base to New Chwang.

WHERE FIGHTING WAS HARDEST

General Kuropatkin's headquarters in the field, via Fusan, Aug. 5.—(Delayed in transmission.)—Detailed reports arriving at headquarters show that the right wing of the Japanese army had the hardest fighting during the battle of last Sunday. A sensational feature occurred at Chouhshui pass, ten miles from Mo Tien pass. A brigade constituting the center of the column fled with two Russian regiments for possession of a summit commanding the Russian flank. The Japanese fired as they ascended, dislodging the Russians.

SEEMS UNCHANGED

Kuropatkin Reports No Developments on Battle Front.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 7.—General Kuropatkin, in a telegram to the emperor dated August 6, reports a reconnaissance on August 5th on the south front in the direction of the Japanese positions. The Russians set fire to the village of Henshunsu, thirteen miles northeast of New Chwang, from which place a small force of Japanese fled precipitately, leaving their transport animals. The report gives the details of other skirmishes and concludes with the statement that there is no change on the east front of the army.

JAPANESE ADMIRALTY

They Think Kuropatkin Performed a Miracle.

Tokio, Aug. 7.—General Kuropatkin's success in extricating his army from Liao Tung peninsula without disaster has elicited much praise from the Japanese. The report gives the details of other skirmishes and concludes with the statement that there is no change on the east front of the army. It is popularly believed that a great and decisive battle would be fought either at Ta Tche Kiao or at Hai Cheng. It is considered here that Kuropatkin has sacrificed his prestige by abandoning an immense territory without battle. He was forced to abandon or destroy valuable stores and munitions of war when transportation was a most serious problem to the Russians. He also impaired the morale of his army, but he preserved his men and guns. It is evident that he had hoped and planned to check the Japanese at Ta Tche Kiao. Then after holding the enemy in check, it is believed to have been his purpose to concentrate his remaining forces at Liao Yang and strike Kuropatkin. It is generally believed that the crisis will come shortly at Liao Yang and that Kuropatkin will be forced to give battle whatever his present purpose may be.

SKINNED ALIVE.

A Japanese Report of Recent Russian Atrocities.

Tokio, Aug. 7.—6 p. m.—General Kuropatkin's staff surgeons have examined the bodies of a number of soldiers who they allege have been victims of Russian atrocities. One of the cases cited was that of the condition of affairs found at two on July 3. It was declared by surgeons that the head of a Japanese soldier was skinned by Russians while blood was yet in full circulation. Four cases in the vicinity of Shiamatsa are also reported in which surgeons asserted that the bodies were bayoneted and disfigured after the victims had fallen wounded. The publication of these statements has created a feeling of disgust and intense resentment here.

FIGHTING AT PORT ARTHUR

Stoessel's Official Report of Late Engagements.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 7.—Lieutenant General Stoessel, commanding the Russian military forces at Port Arthur, in an undated dispatch to the emperor, says: "I am happy to report that the troops repulsed all the Japanese attacks of July 26, 27 and 28, with enormous losses. The garrison's enthusiasm was extraordinary. The fleet assisted in the defense by bombarding the Japanese bank. Our losses during three days fighting were about 1,500 men and 40 officers killed and wounded. According to statements of the Chinese and prisoners the Japanese lost 10,000. Their losses were so great that the enemy has not had time to remove the dead and wounded."

LATER NEWS VIA CHE FOO

St. Petersburg, Aug. 7.—A telegram from Che Foo dated August 7, says that according to Chinese information a fierce battle was fought on the land side of Port Arthur on August 5. The Japanese are reported to have been repulsed with great loss, the killed alone being estimated at 10,000, while the Russian loss was about 1,000. The telegram says that Lieutenant General Stoessel was personally in command and that the conduct of the Russian troops was splendid.

STRAIGHT FROM TOKIO.

London, August 7.—The Times correspondent at Tokio, under date of August 7, says there is an unofficial report there that the Japanese have captured commanding positions north and northeast of Port Arthur, at a distance of 250 yards from the main line of the Russian defenses.

TORPEDO BOATS CLASH.

Tokio, Aug. 7.—4 p. m.—Admiral Togo reports that an exciting torpedo boat destroyer fight took place off Port Arthur on Friday evening, August 5. The Japanese torpedo boat destroyers Akabono and Oboro approached the entrance of the harbor for the purpose of reconnoitering. Fourteen Russian torpedo boat destroyers dashed out, separated and endeavored to surround the Japanese boats. The latter broke through the cordon, however, driving off three of the Russian boats. At this point the Japanese torpedo boat destroyer Inazuma joined the other two and the three spiritedly attacked the remaining eleven Russian boats. The latter retired within the harbor. The Japanese boats were unharmed. The damage to the Russian ships is unknown.

Admiral Togo congratulated the men and officers of the three Japanese boats on attacking and causing the retreat of a superior number of the enemy's ships. Lieutenant General Yamaguchi of the fifth division, who commanded the Japanese troops during the boxer uprising died today, after a lingering illness. The emperor made General Yamaguchi a viscount yesterday.

TRANS-SIBERIAN RAILROAD.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 7.—Prince Hilkoft, minister of railroads, left St. Petersburg today for Baikal, to inspect the railway in that district. He declined favorable offers of foreign companies for the double tracking of the trans-Siberian railway, and the project has been abandoned.

DEATH AND HIGHWAYMEN

Both Seemed to be Reaching Out After Allen Fletcher

Allen Fletcher, a traveling man from Chicago, who is stopping at the Hotel Adams, met with a double misfortune some time this morning between 12 and 1 o'clock. He was overcome by a fainting spell and before he was found by a good Samaritan he had been discovered by a bad highwayman and robbed of his roll.

The incident occurred on First avenue, between Washington and Adams streets. Mr. Fletcher was going along the sidewalk when he suddenly grew faint, fell to the ground and lapsed into unconsciousness. Shortly before 1 o'clock a citizen who chanced to pass that way, saw the man lying prostrate and notified the police.

Soon after their arrival Mr. Fletcher was sufficiently restored to tell who he was and where he was stopping and he was accordingly taken to his room. Arriving there he took an inventory of his personal effects and found himself short $150 in good American money.

NEW YORK IS SAFE

No Falling Away in Republican Vote

The Party Is Perplexed Only by the Question of the Selection of a Candidate for Governor.

New York, Aug. 7.—Governor Odell, as chairman of the republican state committee, yesterday held a conference at the Fifth Avenue hotel with the New York City members of the state committee. The governor reached town shortly after noon, and met the leaders in parlor DR. Present were Robert M. Johnston, L. M. Swasey, Jacob A. Livingston, F. J. H. Kracke, George H. Roberts, Jr., Michael J. Dady, Charles H. Murray, James F. Pegnam, Wm. Halpin, Smith Pine, Edward Lauterbach, John H. Gunner, Abraham Gruber, Frank Raymond, Samuel Strassburger, William H. Ten Eyck, William L. Ward, and Executive Chairman William Barnes, Jr. of Albany.

The nomination for governor was discussed, and some of the committee members were asked about the sentiment in their districts with reference to a candidate. Nothing significant developed in the conference. Afterward some of the conferees said that the reports showed that the republicans everywhere were in good fighting trim and were confident of electing a full state ticket.

William L. Ward, national committee man, said that things were looking first rate. He continued: "Those in position to know, are quite sure that ex-Secretary Root cannot be prevailed on to be a candidate for the nomination. It is human nature for us to want something beyond our reach. As soon as it became apparent that Mr. Root was opposed to re-entering active politics, from all round there came a demand that he be a candidate for the governorship nomination. This was urged by many on the ground that Mr. Root would command support at the polls which President Roosevelt would not get. It is becoming more and more apparent that President Roosevelt does not need to have any particular candidate nominated to carry the state. He is sure to carry the state. The only thing to guard against is the possible selection of a candidate who would prove much weaker than the president. We want a man who will not hurt the state ticket more than we want one who will help it. If we can get a thoroughly high-class, unobjectionable candidate, who will be as strong as President Roosevelt, we shall be all right."

"How about the prospect so far as we have been able to size it up?" Mr. Ward was asked. "First rate," said Mr. Ward. "We shall hold our republican vote practically intact. Our losses, where we have any, will be more than offset by gains from among the anti-Hill men and from first voters. Nearly all the first voters are going to cut a considerable figure in the situation. I do not care to speak of national prospects. Mr. Cortelyou will be here next week and will speak with emphasis from that point of view."

THE HORROR GROWS

Pueblo, Colo., Aug. 8.—It is now reported that between thirty and fifty people have been drowned in the wreck of the bridge. The wreckage of the bridge has been found in the river. A full list of names of the victims has been made on Pueblo, and every available man is being sent to the scene of the disaster. Details are very hard to obtain at this hour.

THE RIO GRANDE'S FEAR

Denver, Colo., Aug. 8.—A special train carrying Chief of Surgeon O'Connor, Superintendent Martineau and other Rio Grande officials left at 1 o'clock for the scene of the wreck at Pinon. No definite information has been received by the officials here beyond the fact that three cars went through the bridge. The Rio Grande people fear that the loss of life has been heavy.

CASE OF BURN OR DROWN

Two Young Men Were Near Difficult Choice When Rescued

Winsted, Conn., Aug. 7.—Clinging to a burning gasoline launch in forty feet of water, Jeremiah Roy and William Logan, neither of who could swim, would have drowned in Highland lake last night save for the timely assistance of cottagers, who put out in rowboats and rescued the young men.

Roy, in attempting to light the headlight of the craft, dropped the burning match into some gasoline in the bottom of the launch and flames immediately enveloped the occupants, who jumped overboard and grabbed the sides of the boat. When assistance reached the young men the flames had blistered their hands. The interior of the launch was ruined.

SALARIES OF RURAL CARRIERS

Washington, Aug. 7.—In the adjustment of the salaries of rural carriers in the postal service, it has been decided that all carriers appointed prior to June 30, 1904, who were entitled to the maximum pay of $600, shall receive the maximum pay of $720, but that the schedule which became effective July 1, 1904, and recently announced, shall prevail in fixing the compensation of all carriers appointed since June 30.

SHIPPING WAR SPREADS

Austrian and Hungarian Governments at Odds

Vienna, Aug. 7.—The fight between the Cunaud and German lines is said to have led to a conflict between the Hungarian and Austrian governments, which, it is feared, may seriously affect the commercial relations of the halves of the monarchy.

The Austro-Hungarian line recently has taken from Flume large shipments of corn and sugar, thereby materially damaging the business of the Adriatic line, which is allied with the Cunaud line. The Adriatic line thereupon asked the Hungarian government to make representations to Vienna. This was done, the Hungarian minister pointing out that the Austro-American line competition was contrary to the existing understanding between the two countries.

A successful grocer, for instance, who if he were investing his money in the grocery business, would find out every detail and every 'in and out' of the new business, and would make a close and advantageous deal, will draw his check for some irrigation stocks or bonds in the most trustful and confiding manner—paying for an investment regarding which he knows absolutely nothing, can find out nothing, and which is as problematical as the veriest wild cat mine.

"Other people make personal investigation. They go over the land to be reclaimed; they see the splendid crops growing on other lands which have been reclaimed, and having 'investigated,' they confidently invest, even though a tract of 50,000 acres is to be reclaimed with a water supply insufficient for 5,000 acres. I am mentioning these figures advisedly. There are instances today where irrigation shares are being sold for land containing absolutely no water supply at all, and which can never be irrigated, but will always remain a desert."

"The meanest and most contemptible class of sales are where the promoters hold out the alluring picture to the poor man of family, that thinks he is, by his small regular contributions buying a home for himself—little home to which he can go in his old age, and by reason of the bountiful crops due to irrigation, support himself and his family. Thousands of people in the United States are making such contribution which they might as well throw into a rat hole."

FELL THROUGH A BRIDGE

Engineer, Fireman and Conductor Missing

Colorado Springs, Colo., Aug. 7.—Misadventure befell passenger train No. 11, southbound, fell through a bridge at Eden, Colo., twenty-five miles south of this city, at 9 o'clock this evening. The engine and five coaches went through the bridge. The engineer, fireman and conductor have not yet been found. So far as can be learned at this time there are no other fatalities.

The train dropped into Fountain creek, the bridges being weakened by continuous heavy rains. Wrecking trains have been sent to the scene of the wreck from Pueblo and doctors are accompanying.

SOLDIERS GUARD NEGRO.

Charlestown, W. Va., Aug. 7.—Geo. W. Williams, a negro, was tried yesterday for assaulting Miss Laura Knode, a white school teacher, near Harper's Ferry. He was found guilty and sentenced to be hanged next month.

The trial had to be held with soldiers surrounding the court house.

NEAR THE DALAI LAMA

Lhasa, Tibet, Aug. 3.—(Delayed in transmission.)—The British expedition is encamped a mile from the Sacred Mountain of Potala, on which is situated the dalai lama's palace and in the immediate vicinity of the dalai lama's private gardens.

NEW $10 COUNTERFEITS.

Washington, Aug. 2.—Chief Wilkie of the United States secret service, announced the discovery of a new counterfeit $10 National Bank note. It is on the National Bank of Commerce in New York, series 1882, Bruce register, Wyman treasurer. It is a poorly executed photograph.

THE WEST POINT EXHIBIT

America's Great Military Academy a Feature of the World's Fair.

St. Louis, Aug. 7.—West Point, the world's greatest military training school, has a special exhibit at the world's fair, as part of the United States war department display in the government building.

The weapons of war are exhibited by the government, showing the deadly machine guns, the heavy siege guns, and the lighter field guns, while just beyond the gun display is the West Point feature of the exhibit, where the men are taught to handle these guns in the most scientific manner and to direct armies in the field and maintain the honor of the American flag all over the world.

The West Point structure in the government building is guarded by a wax figure in cadet uniform, while on the other side of the entrance stands another figure in the uniform of a cadet adjutant. In the center is a pyramid of guns, artistically arranged, over which are a number of old tattered and torn flags that have been service in the corps of cadets for years. Under these old flags have marched cadets, who have helped to make history, boy soldiers who have grown into heroes in military and civil life and have wielded wonderful influences in the world's affairs. A cadet is trained to reverence honor above all things, even life itself, and these old flags stand for all that is best at the grand old institution.

WOMAN DYING FROM "DARE."

New Yorker Slides Down "Chilkoot Pass" and Suffers Fatal Injuries

New Haven, Aug. 7.—Because she would not take a dare, Mrs. John Larry, of No. 230 West Ninety-fifth street, New York, is reported to be dying at her summer home, Palm cottage, Savin Rock. Her left leg is fractured above the ankle and she suffers from serious internal injuries. She did the "Chilkoot Pass" at the "White City" with a woman friend who had dared her. Sliding down her ankle struck one of the numerous bumps and she landed heavily at the foot of the incline, several persons falling upon her before she could get up.

The "pass" is a steep incline of wood on which are many "humps." It is made very smooth by waxing. Mrs. Larry is quite stout, and she slid unusually fast, starting before she had expected.

Her husband was in New York at the time of the accident.

SERIOUS SITUATION IN MOROCCO

State of Great Unrest Prevails, Consul General Gummere Reports

Washington, Aug. 2.—Acting Secretary of State Downer received a mail report from Mr. Gummere, the American consul general at Tangier, dated July 15, showing a state of great unrest and uneasiness in Morocco, following the Perdicaris incident.

Mr. Gummere says that some time ago strong representations were addressed to the Morocco court by the foreign representatives as to the necessity of enlarging the customs storeshouses. Work was begun on the subject but was promptly stopped on receipt of letters from the tribesmen who threatened the sultan's representatives and his advisers if they undertook the enlargement of the buildings. Mr. Gummere tells of the attempt to kidnap Mr. Harris, the representative of the London Times, which has been described in cable dispatches, and the situation grows more serious daily.

NO PEACE SIGN

Both Packers and Butchers Obstinate as Ever

STRIKERS STAND FIRM

Notwithstanding the Hope of Employers That There Would be a Break in Their Ranks This Morning, Strike Endorsed by Chicago Unions.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—After a fight which has lasted for nearly four weeks, a settlement of the stock yards strike seems tonight to be as remote as at any time since the struggle began. Neither side to the conflict during all this time has shown any signs of weakening.

The packers, while asserting that they will soon have their affairs in a normal condition again, so successful have they been in securing non-union men, still admit that so far they have been able to get but 559 of their old employees back and that a majority of their men are unskilled workers. Last week the packers were figuring on a break in the ranks of the strikers when work is resumed tomorrow morning, but there was nothing tonight to indicate that the men were even considering such a step or that they had any idea of surrendering tomorrow or at any future time.

All the labor unions of Chicago have endorsed the stock yards strike. After listening to the strikers' side of the controversy, which was presented by Michael J. Donnelly, president of the striking butchers' union, the Chicago Federation of Labor, which is composed of every labor organization in Chicago, and its membership of nearly 300,000, adopted resolutions tonight pledging their moral and financial support to the federated body as long as the strike continues.

BOY SAVES OLD MAN'S LIFE

Lad Knocks a Bull Down With a Stone Just in Time

Corry, Pa., Aug. 6.—The well-directed blow of a stone thrown by Harry Garrow, aged 14 years, saved the life of aged Thomas Rice at Northeast. Rice was taking a shortcut through the pasture in which a bull was quartered. The bull tossed the man high in the air. When Rice came down the bull gored him again and again. Garrow, coming on the scene, hurled a large stone at the enraged beast the missile struck the bull squarely between the eyes. He staggered for a moment and then fell to the ground. The mangled victim was then dragged across the fence to safety.

SCARED TO DEATH BY LIGHTNING

Springfield, Mass., Aug. 7.—Joseph Ferriter, ten years old, expired without warning in the midst of a vivid flash of lightning yesterday. Physicians say death was due to a pyroxy of fear.

KANSAS CITY MARKETS

A Review of Prices and Conditions of the Past Week.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 7.—The total cattle receipts last week were 29,999 head, more than half of which were in the quarantine division. The cattle in the native division were 75 per cent beef cattle, leaving a small number of stockers and feeders. Quite a number of range cattle were here, some of them good. Horned western feeders of good quality sold at $4.50 to $4.75, with some choice lots as high as $5.75. Beef steers, however, lost 15 to 20 cents during the week. Some 1200 to 1250 Panhandle steers sold at $4.50 to $5.25 Tuesday, but would not have brought as much later in the week. Straight Texas grass steers, 1000 lbs, sold at $3.45. Western and southwestern cows and heifers sold at $2.25 to $2.50 for fair to good quality. Common stuff continues hard to sell, but packers expect to resume manufacture of by-products and operation of canneries within a short time. Armour was able to make nearly a normal kill last week, and the other plants here took from 50 to 75 per cent of the ordinary amount of supplies. More stockers and feeders could have been used last week than came, and prices gained 25 to 40 cents. The total supply is 12,000 head, including a larger proportion of stockers and feeders than for some time, and they are not more than steady. Texas and Oklahoma stockers sold at $2.75 to $3.75. No range feeders were received for natives indicate that Panhandle and western feeders of good quality would sell at $3.75 to $4.25. All the markets have big runs, with prices 10 to 25 cents lower, and prospects point to still lower prices this week.

No western sheep have been received lately until yesterday, when a shipment of Montana sheep, billed through, arrived here. They were not offered, although an effort was made to buy them. Good westerns would bring $4.00 to $4.25. No Texas muttons were received last week, but some feeding Texans sold at $2.20. Good muttons would bring $3.50 to $3.90. Lambs sold up to $5.75. Less than 5,000 sheep came in last week, but packers here say they can handle 2,000 to 2,500 head per day, and the country demand is good. Markets last week were strong, and prices are 10 to 15 cents higher today.
